Story of the Alleged Bribe.

The story as told to the District-Attorney by Mr. Poulson and Mr. McCord is that after the strike had been under way in April of 1802. Parks came to Mr. Poulson with a proposition to call it off. Mr. Poulson said he refused to talk to him. Out referred him to Mr. McCord. President of the American Bridge Check. Tills was on April 29. On the day following the check was drawn by Mr. McCord to the order of his son, and by him tendorsed and made payable to be parks.

District-Attorney Jerome said that in addition to the $2.000 received by Parks. To the Hecka Iron Works he had received a check for $4,800 for calling on the Hecka Iron Works he had received a check for $4,800 for calling on tractors. This, Mr. Jerome explained after the hearing, was his reason for wanting Parks held in $5,000 from the subway contractors. This, Mr. Jerome explained after the hearing, was his reason for wanting Parks held in $5,000 ball. He said he thought the deposits made by Park in the Garfield National Bank would show him to be a fairly well-to-do citizen.
